vs.

JORGE REYES-SANTIAGO

Luis Guzman-Dupont, Esq.

The defendant is present in court. He is X under custody released.

CASE CALLED FOR FINAL REVOCATION HEARING of supervised release. After having heard both parties in this case, the Court finds that the offender violated the conditions of the imposed supervised release term by engaging in new criminal activity as cited in the motions filed by the U. S. Probation Officer on July 2, 2004 and March 14, 2005. Therefore, the supervised release term imposed on September 8, 2000, is hereby revoked. The Court is aware that the Chapter Seven (7) Policy Statements of the Sentencing Guidelines regarding revocation of supervised release are advisory. However, should they have been applied in this case, the guideline imprisonment range would have been from 4 to 10 months based on a Grade B violation and a Criminal History Category of I.

IT IS THE JUDGMENT OF THE COURT as to violation(s) in Standard Conditions

No. 1, No. 2 and No. 7.

Imprisonment for a total term of 6 months consecutively with the term that he is presently serving with the State Court.

Supervised release for a total term of 36 months

Fine: None Special Monetary Assessment: None Restitution: None

All terms and conditions are specified in the judgment form.

The defendant is advised of his/her right to appeal, etc.

 Any remaining counts as to this defendant are ordered dismissed.

 Voluntary surrender is requested. It is granted denied

X Defendant is remanded to the custody of the U.S. Marshal.
